

AGA KHAN FOUNDATION
CANADA

An Agency of the Aga Khan Development Network

Introduction

The Aga Khan Development Network (AKDN) is a group of private, international, non-denominational agencies working to improve living conditions and opportunities for people in the developing world. The AKDN's organizations have individual mandates that range from the fields of health and education to architecture, livelihoods development and the promotion of private enterprise. Together, they collaborate in working towards a common goal – to build institutions and projects that can respond to the challenges of social, economic, and cultural change on an ongoing basis.

Aga Khan Foundation Canada (AKFC) is an international development organization, registered charity, and an agency of the AKDN. AKFC partners with communities, businesses, and governments to find innovative, lasting solutions to promote inclusive development. Working in Africa and Asia, AKFC invests in local institutions and systems that anchor progress over the long term. In Canada, AKFC mobilizes funding and expertise, and promotes awareness of global issues. Since 1980, AKFC has helped millions of women and men to unlock their own potential to build a better life.

Purpose

AKFC aims to collect photographs, videos, and narrative content to showcase the impact of AKF and the AKDN's work in Canada, with a focus on the Youth Leadership Academy (YLA) funded by the IDEA grant.

The content collected will be used in perpetuity in a suite of digital and print communication products focused on the work of AKF and the AKDN.

All content collection undertaken by AKF is bound by the AKF Global Safeguarding Manual, which is based on international conventions and instruments, and sets out guidelines regarding the security and ethical use of images and information.
